(these historical notes were taken from "the Dodd Lineage" written by John McKee (16 pages) and a letter from him to Samuel T. Dodd)

William the Conqueror was crowned King of England in 1066.. He divided up all the lands he had conquered into Crown lands, Church lands and land grants which he divided up between his 24 Barons and their squires and had them listed in the Domesday (Doomsday) books, 1085-86. Baron Gilbert De Lacey w as given Cheshire, Lancashire and parts of other counties in the North of England. One of his squires who was listed in the Doomsday was William Dodd, Esquire of Edge, Cheshire and his coat of arms was a sheaf of wheat with 2 snakes coiled around it, protruding 15 inches in opposite directions with their fangs protruding, motto SEMPER PARATUS--always prepared, apparently inherited from ancestors in France.

There was raiding, feuding and fighting across the border with the Scotish clans for generations, wiping out whole families at times. "But the Dodds came to life again in Northumberland where one of them was knighted for his skill and daring in repelling the ravages of the Scots across the Cheviot Hills into England. His crest was a Norman Charger, saddled and bridled with the motto PREPARED AND READY."

After Mary was crowned Queen of England in 1553 she had many of her Presbyterian opponents beheaded. "During this reign of terror the Rev. Charles Dodd risked his life by urging the people to hold on to the rights and liberties that hd been granted them by the good King Hal and confirmed to them by his son Edward VI, viz. To Worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience."

"Rev Charles married a rich lady, Miss Wolley, and they established their home at Edge, in Cheshire, taking for their Coat of Arms a sheaf of wheat encircled by a snake and the snake holding in its mouth a cross, with the motto-IN COPIA CANTUS--Singing Amidst Plenty. He must have known his family history because he went back to where the first Dodd in recorded history had pitched his tent 500 years before, and instead of a snake hissing out hate and venom, he was now pouring forth Praise and Thanks"

After the death of Elizabeth, King James VI of Scotland was crowned James the 1st of England. His great aim was to unite the two kingdoms. "at this period the Dodds went into Scotland where they rose to positions of power and influence, and for business or political reasons dropped the English warhorse from their crest and adopted a Scotish pony. Some of them even dropped the motto."

"On or about the year 1725 two men arrived in Saintfield from the south of Scotland, called William Forest and Sam Dodd. They went to Squire Price, Lord of the Soil, who gave them farms in the townland of Craigy. Sam Dodd got a farm of about 20 acres on the hilltop where redheaded John Shaw lived about 1870. There Sam built a house, got married and had three children, Francis, William and Jane."

William Forest got about 65 acres of land known as Glen Brow. He went into the linen business which was a popular industry in Ulster at that time. "At the foot of Stand Stone Hill there was a wonderful spring of water. He levelled off about 10 acres beside his spring well and there he bleached his linen. He took as an apprentice Sam Dodd's son Francis. Will Forest died in 1769 leaving his bleachery to his apprentice Francis Dodd. Squire Price accepted Sam Dodd as his tenant in the room and stead of Will Forest, deceased, which according to the Irish Land laws of that time he had a perfect right to do.

"Sam Dodd sold his hilltop farm and went to live in the Glen.. Shortly a sister of Will Forest arrived from Scotland to take possession of her brother's estate, but there was nothing she could either seize or attach. She felt that she was cheated out of what was justly hers and she could do nothing. Helpless? No! there was one thing she could do and that was to put a curse on the farm and she knew how to do it with power and affect: viz., start at midnight on a march around the farm and keep it up for three days and nights without eating or drinking, but pouring forth maledictions on your enemies all the time. She did it, and when midnight came on the third night and her incantations ceased, she was near a spring well, which is still at the foot of Wee Sam's croft. Being feverish she went to the well to quench her thirst and drank so much that the next morning Sam Dodd found her dead, lying beside the well.

It is said "that when any aged member of the family dies she is bound to make her appearance. The last time is when old William died. His son Francis was returning home and seeing a woman standing near the well, believed it was his sister Mary Adams and spoke to her. Instead of looking into his sister's face he looked into the face of a diembodied spirit and she returned the look with a burst of light coming through the eyeless sockets of a human skull. She uttered no sound!"

William Dodd, born in 1729, was an honor student at Cambridge and when he was ordained to the ministry his eloquence in the pulpit made him famous. In 1760 he was appointed Chaplain to George III, who in turn appointed him guardian of the minor heir of Lord Chesterfield. Later he was suspected of being the author of the Junius Letters. These were letters exposing scandals of the Court and other people in high places; some of the most scandalous affairs were written in Latin or Greek. Because of his superior education Rev. William Dodd was suspected, tried and acquitted. Later ro pay some debts he forged a note on his friend the Earl of Chesterfield. This time he was tried and convicted. Samuel Johnson drew up a petition, secured 23,000 names on it, for his pardon. It was sent to the King, but never received an answer; nor did the Earl of Chest erfield ever press charges, but William Dodd was hung on Tyburn Hill on June 27th, 1777!

PRESENT TIME

In the past we had farmers and ministers, but as of now, only one minister, Chaplain Yardley. We have members in the Army, Air Force, and Navy (one in Japan at the moment). We have doctors, lawyers, engineers-sales, marine, aeronatical and computer programmer. We have members living from the New England states to Florida; from the East Coast to the West and places in between.

Dear Wife

Your letter of today received. I am well how did it happen you never wrote sooner I looked the next day for an answer. I hardly know what to say. I wrote about my check but I have got no answer yet You go to the depot at Fredonia and ask if there is a check there for me. I wrote to the Treasurer of the Co. to see if you could get it by being identified You had better go and sell what things there is. get what you can for the things. and the fruit and pig. I saw a fellow from

Ill. he said Uncle Dock was dead and they were leaving over his land he willed everything to Coffman and they had a trial and Coffman compromised with 80 acres. and now they are leaving again. so you see I'll get something if he dont get no more than 80 acres I will be entitled to $100 $200.
If my check is not there and you can not get it by being identified let me know. But be careful with what money you have I may go to Ill. as soon as I hear from you. I feel awful bad lost but it may come out for the best I can get nothing to do here I look sun every day

I have been here trying to get something to do but failed
Dont go home till you hear from me again. what do you think. I had better do can't you give me some advice I will stay here till I hear from you again so be sure and answer as soon as you get this.

Bye Bye

BY-LAWS.
WHITE PANTHER OIL COMPANY.

ARTICLE I

This corporation shall be known as the White Panther Oil Company.

ARTICLE II.

The principal place of business shall be at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and branch and branch offices shall be maintained at such other places as the directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE III.

The control of this Company shall be vested in a Board of Directors, composed five (5) members, each of whom shall hold one or more shares of stock.

SECTION 1. The directors shall be elected by the stockholders and shall serve one year and until their successors are elected.

SEC. 2. The directors shall have general control the property and business of the corporation; they shall elect from their number the following officers of the company, to serve one year and until their successors are chosen: President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer; provided, that the offices of the Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. The directors may appoint such managers of branch offices and departments as may from time to time become neccessary.

SEC. 3. Meetings of Directors shall be held annually immediately after the annual stockholders meetings. At such meeting the directors shall elect officers for the ensuing year, receive reports of officers, and transact such other business as may come before them. A majority of those present shall constitute a quorum, and the votes of a majority of those present shall constitute a binding act of the corporation. Meetings of the directors may be held either at the principal place of business or at any branch office. Notice of the meetings must be given by the Secretary in writing to all the directors at least five days prior to the meeting; special meetings of directors may be called at any time by the President or Secretary upon written request of two directors, and notice thereof must be mailed to each director in writing at least five days in advance of such meeting; provided that the notices provided for in this section may be waived by the written assent of all the directors; or notices may be published for one week in a daily newspaper issued at the principal place of business. None of the officers or directors of this company shall draw any salary until the company has been placed upon a paying basis and and salaries are to be paid only from the proceeds arising from the business, but should the business become such that it is necessary for the secretary or treasurer to devote at least one-half or more than one-half of their time to conducting the office of the company and in looking after its business, he shall be allowed the sum of four dollars per day, actual expense for each day's time that the secretary or treasurer shall put in looking after the affairs of the company. Said treasurer or secretary to render a statement at the end of each month showing the number of days that have taken their entire time to look after the affairs of the company, and the board of directors shall allow such claim for expenses at a rate not to exceed four dollars per day. The board of directors shall allow the actual traveling expenses of directors, for actual time of attending meeting of directors to members, who do not reside at the place of meeting. Vacancies in the board of directors or in any office may be filled by the board of directors.

SEC. 4. The fiscal agents of the company shall be appointed by the board of directors; they shall have charge of the salesmen and agents selling stock in this corporation; they shall be in full charge of said salesmen and agents, having complete control of them, subject to the supervision and authority of the board of directors; they shall have authority to employ such agents as they deem necessary and shall pay as compensation an amount not exceeding the amount provided for in the by-laws for the compensation of such salesmen and agents, subject only to the supervision and control of board of directors.

ARTICLE IV.

The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the second Monday of September each year, commencing with the year 1918. Meetings shall be held at the principal place of business unless upon request in writing by a majority of the stockholders; notice thereof must be given in writing at least five days prior thereto, but notice of special meetings may be waived in writting by all the stockholders; or notice of such meeting may be published for one week prior thereto in a daily newspaper issued in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. At all meetings a majority of the issued capital stock must be represented in person or by proxy in writing. The stockholders shall elect the board of directors at the annual meeting, and a majority of the issued capital stock shall be necessary to elect. Each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock standing in his or her name on the books of the company ten days prior to such meeting.

ARTICLE V.—Duties of Officers.

Section 1. The President shall sign all certificates of stock, deeds and contracts executed by the Company, and shall have such other duties as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 2. The Vice President shall preside at the meeting of stockholders and directors in the absence of the President, and upon vacancy or absence occuring in the office of President, shall act as such and shall have full authority in the premises until his successor is chosen.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall be present at all meetings of the stockholders and directors, and take and keep full minutes thereof, shall keep a stock book in which he shall enter all transfers of stock; shall have charge of all records of the corporation, together with the seal and charter, and he alone shall have authority to affix the seal. He shall give notice of all meetings of stockholders and directors as herein provided; he shall attest all certificates of stock, deeds and contracts executed by the corporation, and shall have such other duties as may be determined by the directors.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall have charge of and account for all corporate funds coming into his hands, and shall disburse funds; he shall pay dividends, orders, or warrants signed by the President and shall have such other duties as may be fixed by the directors.

SEC. 5. All officers shall render written and detailed reports of the business transacted by them, at the annual stockholders meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

Any officer may be removed for due cause by two-thirds vote of the directors.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever the surplus profits of the Company amount to two per cent or more than two per cent of the capital stock outstanding, the directors may declare a dividend on the shares of stock.

ARTICLE VIII.

These by-laws may be amended by the stockholders by a vote representing fifty-one per cent of the issued capital stock.

ARTICLE IX.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to exchange stock in the Company for oil, gas and other mineral leases upon such basis and valuation as the directors shall consider proper.

ARTICLE X.

None of the officers or stockholders of the corporation shall have authority to borrow money or hypothecate any security of the corporation without the consent and action of the Board of Directors.

Adopted this 30th day of August, 1917.

(Signed) E. R. KERBY,
President.

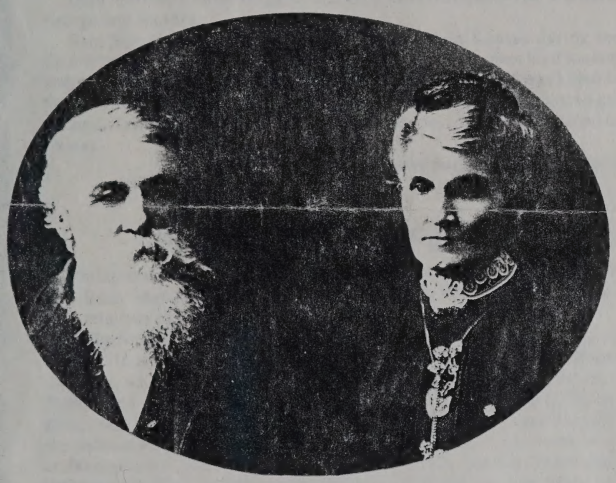
The Granville Griffith Family

Granville Griffith, son of Joseph R. and Caroline (Guthrie) Griffith, was born in Ross County, Ohio, December 17, 1835. At age five his parents moved to Paris, Edgar County, Illinois, where Granville graduated from the Edgar Academy in 1849.

In 1856 he started for Kansas having to walk from Keokuk, Iowa, to Topeka, arriving without a dollar. He settled on the Neosho River near Hartford in Lyon County, his home being a primitive log cabin.

Mr. Griffith borrowed a team and farm implements from his neighbor, and after two years of hard work owned his own team. He later planted nearly 1000 fruit trees, which produced an abundant crop for several years.



Granville & Cinderilla Griffith-1906

In July 1862, Mr. Griffith married Mary E. Hale. They had two children: Joseph L. (born September 1863), and James E. (born November 1864). Mrs. Griffith died in 1870. Six years later Mr. Griffith rented out his farm and moved to Eureka.

On September 21, 1879, Granville married Cinderilla (Clutter) Hill, daughter of Samuel W. and Sarah (Morlin) Clutter. She was born May 7, 1855, in Knox County, Ohio. To this union were born two sons, Francis G. (born 1881), and Juan P. (born 1888).

Mr. Griffith served as Justice of the Peace and was a member of Ossian Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

In 1906 Granville and Cinderilla Griffith moved to Spokane, Washington. Mr. Griffith died there June 1, 1913. Mrs. Griffith remained there until her death on November 15, 1932, from injuries suffered after being hit by an automobile.

Francis (Frank) Griffith married Leona Graham, daughter of Henry C. and Melvina (Cline) Graham of Eureka in 1902. He died in Los Angeles County, California, in 1941.

Juan P. Griffith married Clinda S. Repp, daughter of Sam W. and Margaret (Eshelman) Repp in 1909. He died in 1918 at his home near Hartford from influenza.

William H. Grubb

William H. Grubb was born to Benjamine and Cynthia Gregg Grubb on October 8, 1844, in Logan County, Ohio. At the age of 18 he enlisted in Co. E, 30th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Benjamine Grubb also fought in the Civil War in the same Company as his son, William. Benjamine was 43 and the father of ten children when he enlisted. He died during the war, only nine months after he enlisted.

William was injured May 22, 1865, at the Siege of Vicksburg while "charging on...the Rebels." He then returned home and was united in marriage to Martha "Mattie" Green. After his discharge, William Grubb was a farmer with a partial disability.

To this union were born seven children: Millard, Harry, May, Benjamin, Maude, Roy and Charles Lealand. They lived in Ohio until 1885, and then came to Kansas. His children grew up and were education in Greenwood County.

In 1901 Mrs. Grubb was postmaster of the small town of Utopia, while Harry Grubb as her assistant. The post office was later moved to the Grubbs' home. William died at his home near Utopia December 21, 1908 of sciatic rheumatism. Funeral services were conducted at the Utopia school house, and interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Mattie Grubb died May 16, 1938, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

Son, Charles "Lea", was born January 2, 1895, at Utopia. One evening several years later following a revival meeting at Utopia Baptist Church he walked home a young woman who attended school at Utopia. She would later become his bride. He married Cora "Mae" Glendenning at Madison, Kansas, May 16, 1917. They had eight children: Leo (who died as a child), William, Alice, Milton, Kenneth, Raymond, Wayne, and Carol.

They lived in several places in Greenwood County. While living in District #101; William, Alice and Milton went to a country school called Pleasant Plain. This one-room schoolhouse, heated by one coal stove had about 40 children of all ages. Later the Grubb children would attend school in Quincy and Virgil. Lea Grubb was a farmer and served as custodian for the Virgil school system. He died January 18, 1982, at the age of 87.

Lea and Mae's youngest daughter, Carol, married a classmate, Jar McKenzie, and they lived in Greenwood County for a short period before moving to Butler County.

Samuel & Mattie Slough

Glen married Louise Huggins and they have three children: Barbara, George and Sandra.

Sam Slough and his brother, John, had been in Kansas during the Civil War. They came from a large family and all of that open land looked tempting. They signed up to receive land after the war. John was killed in the Civil War, but Sam and a buddy paid whatever was necessary to get the land. Sam later bought out his buddy and so was able to homestead in Kansas.

Phillip Smethers Family

Phillip and Mary Ricker Smethers moved west to the Eureka area in 1858 from Madison County, Indiana, probably drawn by the reports from relatives of better land to be farmed.

Phillip Smethers was born in Greene County, Tennessee, on November 9, 1800. It is believed that his parents were Phillip and Eve Ricker Smethers, who were born in Pennsylvania and were of German descent. Phillip died in Greenwood County on June 23, 1880. Mary "Polly" Ricker was also born in Greene County, Tennessee, February 25, 1807. Her parents were Jacob and Catherine Mysinger Ricker, who were born in Pennsylvania. They were of Protestant German descent. Mary died February 15, 1895, in Greenwood County. Both Phillip and Mary are buried in the Greenwood Cemetery at Eureka.

Phillip and Mary were married in Greene County, Tennessee, in June of 1823. Ten children were born to this union. They are: Jacob (born about 1824) and died young; Sarah (born about 1826) and married William McMurtry; John (born about 1828) and also died young; Mary Ann (born May 5, 1833, and died January 30, 1916), married first, Oscar Valentine, who died, and second, Rev. R.R. Brady; Phillip (born about 1835) and died young; William (born September 8, 1838, and died February 6, 1917), married Sarah Williams on October 6, 1867, in Greenwood County; Henry (born about 1842 and died September 14, 1919), married Anna Eliza Hohimer on November 2, 1863, in Greenwood County; Reubin (born about 1844 and died July 18, 1873), married Malissa Glaze on July 27, 1865, in Greenwood County; Louvina Catherine (born March 12, 1846, died October 6, 1933), married James Mills, Jr. on December 31, 1868, (see James Mills, Jr. History); Anderson (born July 25, 1849, died January 30, 1931), married first, Emily Glaze, who died, and second, Mary Viola Wantland, from whom he divorced on May 29, 1894.

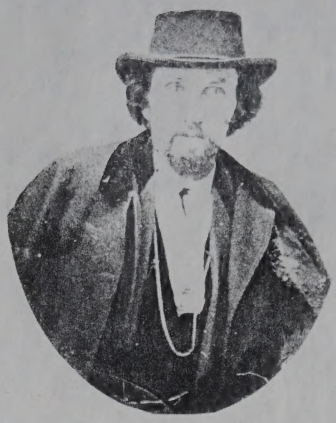
Submitted by great granddaughters, Emma Jo Chapman Spurrell and Patricia Chapman Woods; whose maternal grandmother was Emma Viola Smethers Raybell, daughter of Anderson Smethers.

Franklin Rollin Smith

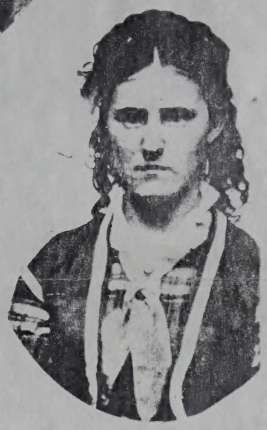
Franklin Rollin Smith of Nokomis, Illinois, was born July 16, 1853. His parents, William and Merivay Morris Smith, for unknown reasons left their very young son with George and Mary Ann Middlecoff to raise.

In 1873, Franklin Smith, age 20, bought land in Montgomery County, Illinois, from the Middlecoffs for $500, in preparation for the family that was soon to come. In fact, two years later, on December 30, 1875, he entered into marriage with Miss Florence Matilda Grubb.

"Tillie", as Franklin called his wife, was born September 29, 1858, the daughter of Benjamin and Cynthia Ann Gregg Grubb. Matilda's father,



Franklin Rollin Smith



Florence Matilda Grubb Smith

Benjamin Grubb, served in the Civil War, Company "E", 30th Regt of Ohio Volunteers. He died in 1863 in the Regimental Hosp. Milliken's Bend, Mississippi, and is buried in the National Mil Cemetery at Vicksburg, Mississippi. Benjamin is the brother of Wm. Grubb, who settled in Greenwood County in 1885.

Two children were born to Franklin and Matilda on their f Illinois: George F. in September of 1876, and two years later Dell was born, in September of 1878. In 1880, when the children we four and two, respectively, Franklin and Matilda packed their family and belongings and made their way to Kansas, suffering hardships of traveling by wagon.

After reaching Greenwood County, Kansas, F.R. Smith purchased land in Bachelor Township. Five more children were born at Smiths settled into their new home. Carl S. was born in December and lived till the age of two, Florence Ethel was born in March Stella G. was born in July of 1887, Rollin Edgar was born in A 1889, and Glenwood M. was born in July of 1898. All are deceased.

Growing up on the grassy plains, the family saw many storm young woman, Della Pearl, the eldest daughter, would tell of particularly fierce thunderstorm, when a fireball entered through kitchen stove, rolled around the room and out the door.

HISTORY OF ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTH INFANTRY.

The One Hundred and Seventh Regiment Illinois Volunteers was mustered into the United States service at Camp Butler Ill., Sept. 4, 1862, and was composed of six companies from DeWitt and four companies from Piatt counties.

September 30, 1862, Regiment left Camp Butler for Jeffersonville, Ind., where it arrived the morning of October 1. Owing to want of drill and discipline, it was ordered into camp, where it remained until October 12, employing the time in drill, and otherwise preparing for active field service.

Crossed Ohio River, October 12, at Louisville—General Buell's Army, meantime, having moved in direction of Perryville. Remained in Louisville until October 18, when it was ordered to Elizabethtown, Ky., to meet the rebel General John Morgan, who was advancing in that direction. A slight skirmish ensued between the One Hundred and Seventh and Morgan's advance, which resulted in the capture of some of the enemy and no casualties to the Regiment.

Moved, thence, to Mumfordsville, Ky., early in December following, where it remained until March, 1863, when it left for Glasgow, remaining there until the following June.

The Twenty-third Army Corps being organized, by order General Burnside, Brigadier General H. M. Judah was ordered to Glasgow, to assume command of all troops organizing for the Second Division, Twenty-third Army Corps, Department of the Ohio; and the One Hundred and Seventh Illinois, being assigned to this Division, marched, on the 18th of June, for Tompkinsville, Ky., on Cumberland River, in order to meet an anticipated movement of John Morgan, who was preparing for the invasion of Kentucky. Followed him to Mumfordsville, Ky., and from thence, by rail, to Louisville, and then, by steamer, to near Buffington Island, where he was finally captured.

Returned to Lebanon, Ky., late in August, when after reorganizing, proceeded with General Burnside on Campaign of East Tennessee. General Judah, being in delicate health, was relieved by General J. F. White, who assumed command of the Division August 21.

The enemy retiring from East Tennessee, the command arrived at Loudon, September 1, 1863. Remained there until middle of October; then proceeded toward Greenville. Having marched some sixty miles east, Knoxville, received orders to countermarch, and proceed with all speed, to the assistance of General Rosecrans. Reached Sweet Water, 15 miles north of Dalton, where it held the battle of Chickamauga.

Returned to Loudon, where was again confronted by advance of Longstreet. Retired to south side Holston River, where it remained until November 13, when it was ascertained the enemy had effected a crossing by aid of pontoons, at Huff's Ferry, 4 miles below. Command retired to Lenoris Station. Was met by General Burnside, who ordered a countermarch in direction of enemy, which was found 3 miles below Loudon. Company A,

Description:
This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1900 United States Federal Census, the Twelfth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, address, relationship to the head of household, color or race, sex, month and year of birth, age at last birthday, marital status, number of years married, the total number of children born of the mother, the number of those children living, birthplace, birthplace of father and mother, if the individual was foreign born, the year of immigration and the number of years in the United States, the citizenship status of foreign-born individuals over age twenty-one, occupation, and more. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1900 Federal Census.
